Any member college has the privilege of appeal on said decision concerning the eligibility of any student of that college if the college deems the decision unfair or unjust. No oral requests shall be reviewed.

Any member college challenging the decision of the Office of Eligibility must do so to the Executive Committee. The appeal must be in writing and made within fifteen (15) days from the date of the original decision of the Office of Eligibility, and sent to the Executive Director, with a copy to the Regional Director by certified mail, return receipt requested. Decisions of the Executive Committee shall be in writing and made within sixty (60) days from notice of appeal and copies shall be furnished to the member college, the Office of Eligibility and the Regional Director, by certified mail, return receipt requested.

If the decision of the Executive Committee is challenged by the member college involved, such challenge must be resolved by the submission of the issue or issues in question to binding arbitration according to the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

The arbitration procedure shall be instituted and conducted as follows:

1. The member college involved must serve written notice upon the Executive Committee, through its Executive Director, demanding arbitration on the issue in question. 4. The arbitration proceedings shall commence on the date agreed by all parties and shall be conducted in the Association's office in the City of Hutchinson, Kansas.

5. All proceedings shall be conducted according to the rules of the American Arbitration Association as defined in Commercial Arbitration Rules, and the member college and the National Junior College Athletic Association shall be bound by the decision of the arbitrator.

6. Each party to the arbitration shall be responsible for the compensation of its own representative and witnesses; the services of the arbitrator shall be compensated jointly by the member college and the National Junior College Athletic Association, in equal amounts.

7. The award shall be made primarily by the arbitrator and, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, no later than thirty (30) days from the date of the closing of the hearings.

8. The decision of the arbitrator shall be made in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, the Constitution and the By-Laws of the National Junior College Athletic Association. The arbitrator shall not amend, modify or add to the specific provisions of these articles in rendering his decision. The decision of the arbitrator shall be based solely upon the interpretation of the Articles of Incorporation, Constitution and By-Laws.

Report of The Committee on The Joint Commission on Competitive Safeguards and The Medical Aspects of Sports

The Joint Commission is composed of the following organizations and their representatives:

Members:

Paul C. Trickett, M.D. American College Health Association
Don Cooper, M.D., American College Health Association
Art Stevens, American College Health Association
Kermit Smith, National Junior College Athletic Association
Carl Blyth, National Collegiate Athletic Association
Otho Davis, National Athletic Trainers Association
"Pinky" Newell, National Athletic Trainers Association
Roy Don Wilson, National Athletic Trainers Association
James E. Bryan, National Association Intercollegiate Athletics
Al Ortolaini, National Association Intercollegiate Athletics
Wally Schwartz, National Association Intercollegiate Athletics
Dave Arnold, National High School Federation

Associate Members:

William D. Heintz, American Dental Association
Thomas E. Shaffer, M.D., American Academy of Pediatrics

The Joint Commission met two times within the 1977-78 school year. The first meeting was on June 11 and 12, 1977, in conjunction with The National Athletic Trainers Association, Dearborn, Michigan. The next meeting was in conjunction with the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) January 11 and 12, 1978. Minutes of both meetings have been sent to all Executive members and Regional Directors.

The addition of The National Collegiate Athletic Association has given added strength to the Joint Commission. The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics is actively participating in an effort to not only strengthen their own organization, but to help the Joint Commission.

The June meeting is always held in conjunction with the National Athletic Trainers Association. The winter meeting is at the same site and time of the NCAA Convention.

Some concerns of the Joint Commission are as follows:

1. Injuries sustained on kick off and punt returns in football.
2. The American Dental Association and its concern for athletes to wear mouth pieces in contact sports.
3. The use of alcohol and marijuana on the college campus.
4. The trend toward law suits in athletics.
5. The lack of certified athletic trainers, especially at the high school and junior college levels.

6. The rough play and lack of protection in ice hockey.
7. Spring football practice. Most members of the Joint Commission are against this.
8. Annual physical examinations and who is responsible for these, the individual, school, or organization?
9. The bringing in of good speakers for the Joint Commission meetings.
10. The participation of the handicapped student in inter-collegiate sports. Most courts of law will rule in favor of the student.
11. Pre-season dental examination.
12. Joint Commission needs women participants.

The chairman of this committee recommends:

1. That physical examinations continue to be a requirement but that each institution be made responsible.
2. The teacher-trainer concept for increasing the number of certified athletic trainers.
3. That more women become involved in the Joint Commission on Medical Aspects of Sports.
4. That each Regional Director use a part of their annual meeting to discuss Medical Aspects of Sports.
5. The NJCAA continue to be a member of The Joint Commission.

Kermit Smith, Chairperson
Robert Zifchak

Report of the Committee on United States Baseball Federation

The USBF, official representative of the U.S. International Association of Baseball and the umbrella organization for promotion of amateur baseball in this country, announced a new slate of officials for 1978-1979. International President - Danny Litwhiler, Michigan State University; Chairman of the Board - Dr. Robert Smith, Greenville College; National Commissioner - Dick Case, President of Babe Ruth Baseball; Secretary - Jack Stallings, Georgia Southern University; and Treasurer - Martin Dittmer, Ellsworth Community College.

The USBF took a big step forward in announcing a goal to have baseball included in the Olympics of 1984. In a meeting held in Chicago, in the middle of February, a steering committee was formed, headed by Rod Dedeaux, charged with preliminary strategy planning and the formation of a national blue ribbon committee which would promote baseball's acceptance as an Olympic sport. We hope that all NJCAA member colleges will aid in this promotion and encourage their local baseball fan's support to make their representatives aware of this desire.

The USBF is a member of AINBA, which is the International Association of Amateur Baseball. They have just been recognized by the IOC as the governing Federation for baseball. Latest figures indicate that 50 countries are now participants in baseball and it is hoped that most of these will support the drive for Olympic inclusion.

The USBF has asked that each affiliate organization try to get at least one USBF article in their organizational newspaper or periodical; and have a USBF representative at their national tournament meet. USBF also encourages each affiliate organization to consider putting their USBF affiliation on their stationery.

The USBF would also like to have the NJCAA continue informing all colleges of the necessity of sanctioning for teams or individuals who participate in International competition.

The Baseball Federation continues to enforce their policy that in all International play a NJCAA baseball coach shall be a part of the coaching staff and also junior college players shall be given equal consideration for International play.

As official representative of NJCAA, I would like to take this opportunity to thank our organization for making it possible for me to be a part of this Federation and also for the opportunity which was extended to me to be one of the coaches in the 1978 USA Japan Series to be held in Japan.

I encourage all member colleges to continue to support the Federation and encourage baseball coaches to become actively involved in promotion of the activities sponsored by the USBF.

Report of the Amateur Basketball Association of the United States of America

ABAUSA is just finishing up its fourth year of operation since receiving the franchise from FIBA. International competition has multiplied ten fold in the past two years. A number of NJCAA colleges, both men and women, have been part of this year's international program. The reaction to the international program by our membership has been very positive.

The National Office is now in the process of attempting to put together a series of games between our members and the Cuban National Junior team. If anyone is interested, please contact the National Office as soon as possible.

Plans are underway for the National Sports Festival Basketball program to be held in Colorado Springs in late July. More detailed information will be distributed through the NJCAA Basketball Committees (Men's and Women's) as it becomes available.

NJCAA representatives to ABAUSA are:

Women	Men
Lea Plarski	Swede Erickson
Betty Jo Crumm	Robert Sechrest
Sue Ross	George Killian

Report of the United States Gymnastics Federation

Theo Heap and I attended the Annual Meeting of the USGF on October 10, 1977, in Tucson, Arizona. Theo Heap was one of the two nominees for President of the USGF for the next two years. Although he was defeated in a close vote, it was an honor for the NJCAA to have one of our leaders considered for this high honor.

The USGF is the franchise holder for men's and women's gymnastics competition in the Olympic Games. As a member of the USGF, we have the opportunity for our athletes and coaches to be considered for Olympic participation.

Although men's and women's gymnastics competition in the NJCAA is in its infancy, we anticipate that our athletes will improve in the future. At that time, hopefully, we will have some of our athletes competing in the Olympic Games.

Report of the United States Track and Field Federation

At this time, the United States Track and Field Federation is conducting a search for a new executive director. Carl Cooper, the current executive director, will retire on December 31, 1978. The organization will continue to carry on a vigorous track and field program throughout the nation, with greater emphasis on the grass roots level.

The NJCAA has always supported the aims and objectives of USTFF and I have conveyed to the USTFF Executive Board that we will continue to do so in the future.

I would encourage our membership, both women and men, to participate in the USTFF national championship programs. We run from time to time, in the JUCO REVIEW, complete USTFF schedules which keeps our membership abreast of the total USTFF program. If any member college would like additional information about USTFF, please contact the National Office.

Report of the United States Wrestling Federation

Over the past three (3) years the USWF has experienced a tremendous growth in its membership due primarily to the development of strong state organizations and an increase in national level programs and projects.

This growth started with increases from 12,000 registered members in 1974 to 17,000 in '75; 30,000 in '76 and last year reached over 37,000.

During the same period USWF club memberships increased from 92 clubs in 1974 to 442 clubs in '77.

Over 400 events held by USWF state organizations were sanctioned in 1977. These activities culminated in 13 national level tournaments. Seven (7) national regional championships for participants 14 years old and younger drew a record 2,423 wrestlers.

At the high school level, three national regional tournaments in the spring had a total of 1,020 participants. Later that summer the four day national Junior USWF championships attracted 709 free-style and 333 greco-roman wrestlers from 37 states.

In open level competition the USWF national Open championships in free-style and greco-roman drew over 200 of the country's best wrestlers. While in the USWF Championship Series, over 500 wrestlers scored series points in 17 separate tournaments leading to the selection of the Grand Champion wrestler for 1976-77.

Helping to stimulate growth at the state level has been the inclusion of a medical insurance policy for all registered athletes as well as liability coverage for coaches, officials and administrators of all USWF sanctioned events. These services plus a national wrestling newspaper, free addressing service, reduced cost for equipment and tournament supplies and freedom to administer their own programs has greatly strengthened the USWF state organizations.

The national office has also increased its efforts to do a better job of educating its membership and developing quality programs through its publications, films and clinics.

Besides the publication of the "Federation Wrestler" newspaper, which last year went to over ¼ million readers (50,000 USWF members five times during the year) the USWF publishes the most up to date international style rules book in the country and has just completed a U.S. Kids Coaches Guide. This 180 page book covers all aspects of forming, organizing and running a youth wrestling program.

The USWF has also prepared a handbook for the administration of the state federation organizations, a guide for putting on officials clinics, one for international pairing clinics and one for the detailed operation of tournaments.

In the area of audio visuals the USWF has just produced a 12 minute film answering the question "Kid Wrestling, What's It All About?" This in addition to an 18 minute officiating technique video tape and a 30 minute highlights film of the USWF National Junior Championships are the beginning of a series of films and tapes available to its membership.

Last year the USWF initiated a series of clinics for officials and pairing people at seven locations across the country. This year the program has been expanded to include presentations by specialists in the field of sports medicine. These "QPEC" clinics (i.e. Quality Programs through Effective Coaching) provide coaches and administrators from the volunteer to the professional, exposure to the psychological and physiological factors affecting the athlete.

Although these programs have required an increased financial commitment by the USWF, the organization has been operating in the "black" for the last three years while continually improving its financial base. In fact, the operating budget reflects a steady increase in gross income, starting with $179,000 in 1975 and reaching over $230,000 this past year.

The most impressive attribute to the strength and stability of the USWF is its National Wrestling Hall of Fame building in Stillwater, Oklahoma. This 10,000 square foot structure is the home of the USWF's national office and the only hall of fame, museum, library and theater complex in the country dedicated solely to the sport of wrestling. At a total cost of almost half a million dollars, this shrine to wrestling is the "debt-free" possession of the United States Wrestling Federation.

Review of the USWF's Challenge of AAU Wrestling Divisions

On May 1, 1977 the USOC under pressure from the recommendations in the report of the Presidents Commission on Olympic Sports and pending Congressional action, passed a number of major changes to its constitution.

Two of the most important changes, as related to the wrestling situation, were the establishment of specific criteria that each governing body had to meet to govern their sport and a mechanism by which individuals and organizations could challenge the governing body. (Refer to USOC Constitution).

On June 3, 1977 the USWF made a formal written application to the USOC for Group A membership (i.e. to be recognized as the governing body). We were notified to appear before the USOC Executive Board at their meeting in Squaw Valley to present our case in person.

On July 30, 1977 both the USWF and the AAU appeared before the USOC Executive Board and presented their cases. Thereafter, the USOC denied USWF's application for Group A membership on the ground that it did not have, under the USOC Constitution, power to admit USWF to such membership. The USOC Board praised the programs of both parties, and recommended that the parties mediate their differences, with Bill Simon -- former Secretary of the Treasury -- acting as mediator. (Refer to USOC Executive Committee Transcript).

Immediately after the USOC Board meeting, USWF filed its demand with AAA for arbitration in Chicago. Shortly thereafter, AAU brought an action in Federal District Court in Chicago, seeking to block the arbitration on the ground that proper procedures had not been followed by USWF in its application to USOC, and that USWF thus had not properly invoked arbitration. AAU sought a temporary restraining order to prevent the arbitration going forward. The USWF vigorously resisted AAU's application for temporary restraining order, and after the matter was briefed and argued, the Court issued an order denying the AAU motion.

During this action by the Court, AAU filed objection with the AAA as to the site of the arbitration. USWF had sought arbitration in Chicago on the ground that this was the most convenient location for all concerned. AAU urged that New York was the most convenient site.

At the same time, having lost on its motion for a temporary restraining order, AAU filed a notice of dismissal of its court action, signaling an intent not to pursue the court action further. USWF, which in response to the original AAU complaint had filed a petition for an order from the Court compelling AAU to submit to arbitration, objected to AAU's notice of dismissal and has sought to have the action reinstated so that its petition can be acted upon. AAU has, of course, resisted our attempts to reinstate the action, and that matter now pends before the Court.

As mentioned earlier, the USOC had urged mediation of the matter in order to save money and avoid an unseemly battle. The AAU accepted USOC's offer to mediate but the USWF rejected the offer because the AAU's law suit raises serious question concerning the willingness of the AAU to place its credentials as a national governing body on the line, and perhaps more pertinently, to seriously negotiate -- on a voluntary basis -- the issues which separate the parties.

The USWF has participated over the last year in a voluntary mediation effort between the parties, with representatives of the President's Commission on Olympic Sports. Those voluntary efforts were productive of virtually nothing, in that the AAU's attitude throughout was that USWF should become subsumed under the AAU national structure, as a condition to the opportunity to gain international outlets for USWF competitions. Even under those conditions, AAU was unwilling to define the circumstances under which -- as to specific competitions and as to the sanctioning thereof - AAU was prepared in advance to bestow its benificence upon USWF. The bringing of the suit is only further evidence of AAU's unwillingness seriously to confront the issues until it is legally compelled to do so.

The arbitration will permit the placing before an impartial body the credentials, or lack thereof, of the respective parties -- under oath, and pursuant to legitimate discovery procedures. The issues can then be reviewed with much greater clarity after discovery has taken place and after some witnesses have been compelled to testify under oath, than if they were held in the context of a voluntary mediation.

Based upon these considerations, the USWF declined the offer of USOC.

On September 14th, the AAA notified the parties of its decision that the arbitration would be held in Chicago, as requested by USWF. A list of arbitrators was provided both the USWF and the AAU, from which three (3) Chicago lawyers were mutually agreed upon to hear the case.

On December 15th the arbitrators met with the USWF and AAU. The primary issue discussed was whether the USWF should be provided the "right of discovery." After both parties presented their views, the arbitrators ruled that the documents contained in the AAU files were subject to review by the USWF because of their pertinence to the case. The next series of hearings were set for one full week in February and one (1) in March.

As of the end of January, however, it would appear the hearing dates will be set back until April and May. This has been agreed upon by both parties because of the additional time needed to research the files.

The final decision of the arbitrators is binding and is expected later this spring.

Bill Wirtanen

Report of the ABC/WIBC Collegiate Bowling

The Collegiate Divisions of the Women's International Bowling Congress (WIBC) and the American Bowling Congress (ABC) have been merged into a single ABC/WIBC Collegiate Division. This newly formed division concentrates its efforts (which heretofore have been duplicated by both the WIBC and ABC) on the stimulation of collegiate bowling on campus, regional and national levels.

Lea Plarski and I have been the NJCAA representatives on a committee which acts in an advisory capacity to the ABC/WIBC Collegiate Committee. Included on the Advisory Committee are representatives from the NAIA, National Association of College Unions International (ACU-I), and the National Intramural, Recreation, and Sports Association (NIRSA).

Some of the significant accomplishments of the committee include the development of a complete awards program which brings the Collegiate Division within compliance of the Title IX legislation affecting college athletic programs.

The Committee has initiated proposed amendments concerning collegiate membership and averages which will be voted on by the delegates at the convention of the ABC and WIBC. Passage of the amendments may have tremendous ramifications on the growth of collegiate bowling, as well as increasing participation by collegiate bowlers in Sanctioned Tournaments.

In addition, the Collegiate Committee authorized the formulation of the position of Manager of the ABC/WIBC Collegiate Division. This person's job is to coordinate the promotion and development of the newly formed Collegiate Division. Effective November 1, 1977, Mr. Roger Dalkin was hired to fulfill the position.

Finally, the Collegiate Committee has been involved in the operation and organization of the Pabst National Collegiate Bowling Championship, which is conducted by the National Bowling Council. This fourth annual championship, scheduled for April 26 through April 29 at Milwaukee, is the continuation of the collegiate portion of the Bowling Spectacular. The tournament has received sponsorship from the Pabst Brewing Company, thus the name.

As in the past, the NJCAA men's champion, along with the NAIA champion, will have one of the spots in a field of twelve teams. The remaining positions in the men's field and all twelve slots in the women's competition will be filled through sectional elimination conducted by the Association of College Unions-International, in cooperation with the WIBC and the ABC.

The junior colleges are having a big impact on collegiate bowling. This is indicative of the large number of junior colleges which have qualified for the sectional roll-offs to be held March 31 and April 1, 1978. Certainly the NJCAA has been a leader by providing a National Tournament. We can anticipate that our National Tournament will grow significantly in the years ahead.

Report of the Commission on Collegiate Athletics

The Commission on Collegiate Athletics is sponsored by the American Council for Education and supported by a grant from the Ford Foundation. The Commission is composed of 15 college and university presidents and vice-presidents, representing a wide spectrum of institutions—two and four year institutions, small and large, public and independent. Working in direct support of the Commission is an advisory group of 20 experts selected from national professional associations which are directly involved in various phases of collegiate athletics.

The charge of the Commission is to seek to preserve and strengthen the benefits of athletics in ways that will complement and enhance the total institutional program. The co-equal commitment is to the student athlete at every level of interest and involvement. Within this charge, the Commission, of course, will explore the several problems that beset athletic programs at the present time.

In the past year, much progress has been made. The Commission has developed a working rationale and purpose; it has drawn up an agenda; it has organized within this agenda subcommittees which are already deep into problems of budget and finance, the academic performance of student athletes, administration and governancy of the programs—to cite a few.

All of the meetings have been held in Washington D.C., and the following is a list of dates:

March 21-22, 1977
May 23-24, 1977
Oct. 11-12, 1977
Dec. 16, 1977 (Special meeting to deal with NCAA reorganization).
March 6-7, 1978

The following major topics will be studied by the Commission with others added as necessary:

1. Collegiate Athletics in American Society
2. Athletics & Institutional Purposes
3. Academic Interests of Athletics
4. Financing Collegiate Athletics
5. Interest of Minority Groups
6. Athletes' Well-being
7. Recruitment & Aid to Athletes
8. Organizational Structure & Governance
9. Athletics Role in Institutional Development & Public Relations

I feel it is very important that the NJCAA be represented on this Commission as many of these topics deal with our member institutions. At the October 11-12 meeting, one of the college presidents chairing a study group presenting a report on Academic Achievement, listed junior college programs as part of the reason for poor academic achievement of four-year college athletes. His written quote was as follows, "It is within this perspective that the specific question of the junior college transfer comes into play, raising serious questions about the purposes, programs, and effect of the 'stake out' schools for varsity athletics. In our view, the quality and integrity of their two-year programs are certainly called to question and bear heavily upon the junior/senior status of the student athlete and his possibilities of graduation."

It was quite apparent that this president, as so many other presidents, has very little knowledge of the community college movement or understanding of the objectives of the NJCAA. I, of course, took objection to the report citing it was improper to call to question the integrity of two-year programs as a whole, just because the possibility exists that a few junior colleges in the USA may have questionable programs. I reminded this president that there are many four-year colleges considered to be "bandit schools" in this country. He then changed the wording of his report.

The Commission will be touching on some controversial issues in the next few years and input from the NJCAA will be very valuable. Enclosed in the packet are a list of the Commission members and advisory liaison representatives, as well as several progress reports for your information. I will be glad to discuss the Commission with anyone who wants more detailed information.

Report of the Council for National Cooperation in Aquatics

CNCA is an educational, non-governmental public service organization devoted to the improvement of aquatic activities in the United States. CNCA and the Canadian Council for Cooperation in Aquatics (CCCA) work in very close cooperation and therefore enlarge the scope of information sharing.

CNCA's beliefs are:

1. Aquatic activities provide some of the best recreational pursuits for the entire family.
2. Swimming is a healthful activity in which almost everyone can participate, including both sexes, the young and aged, persons with physical handicaps, and those with mental limitations.
3. Under competent leadership, swimming and other aquatic activities can contribute to physical, mental, emotional, and social fitness.
4. The primary objective of water safety instruction is to help the individual become safe while in, on, or near the water.
5. Everyone should have the opportunity to learn water safety and be encouraged to improve his skill regardless of age, sex, racial or cultural background.
6. The reduction and elimination of water accidents should be a goal of every community aquatic program.
7. Existing aquatic facilities (private and public) should be utilized to the maximum.
8. Every community has a responsibility to develop adequate aquatic facilities and provide competent aquatic leadership.
9. Education in aquatics should be included in the program of every school system and swimming ability required for high school graduation.
10. A more effective aquatic program can be achieved, in a community and throughout the nation, when all interested groups and individuals cooperate in working for clearly defined, agreed upon goals including conservation and wise use of natural resources.

CNCA is governed by a thirty-six member Board of Directors, representing very diverse organizations that offer aquatic instruction and programs. Some of these organizations are: The Amateur Athletic Union, AAHPER, NJCAA, YMCA, YWCA, NRPA, Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. Foundation, National Surf Life Saving Association of America, etc. The day to day operations of the organization are conducted by an executive director:

Mr. Bernard E. Empleton
CNCA Headquarters
220 Ashton Road
Ashton, Maryland 20702

The Board of Directors meets twice a year to discuss the policies and direction of the organization. In alternate years, the Board meetings are held in conjunction with an open conference sponsored by CNCA dealing with topics pertinent to the field of aquatics. (Closed workshops are only for Board members). In 1976, CNCA's Open Conference was held at the University of Illinois and the 1978 Conference is scheduled for San Diego.

In the twenty-six years of its existence, CNCA's significant contributions have been in the development of aquatic standards (e.g. legislation for underwater diving) and in the publication of some very good books related to the field. The NJCAA's membership can gain benefits from CNCA by becoming familiar with the technical publications available and by attending the open conferences of the organization. I have been to one open conference and found it quite informative. I have also had an opportunity to use their planning publication and found it very useful.

There are samples of some of the publications developed by CNCA on the table and a complete publication list is also available. We should place this information in the hands of our members.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert Zifchak

Report of the United States Collegiate Sports Council

The question is often asked why does the NJCAA belong to and pay dues to the USCSC. A report of some of the activities of the organization and our involvement this past year will help to answer this question.

Of course the aim of the USCSC is to promote the development of physical and moral qualities of our young athletes and give them the opportunity along with coaches and administrators to participate with student athletes from all over the world. Thus helping to create goodwill and respect between people and the nations they represent.

This past summer athletes, coaches and administrators were selected and participated in the World University Games in Sophia, Bulgaria. Under the current rotation system we are assured of the opportunities for coaches in each sport to serve either as a coach or a manager. Junior college coaches have represented us well in the world games.

The United States Olympic Committee provided most of the funds for last summer's games and seem to be happy with the games and the performance of our athletes and officials.

On December 15, 1977 the USCSC Board of Directors, at their regularly constituted Board Meeting, adopted the following criteria for USCSC participation in FISU events, other than the World University Games:

"If a USCSC Games Committee and/or a National Governing Body desires to send a team to a FISU sponsored event, other than the World University Games, the following criteria must be met by said USCSC Games Committee and/or National Governing Body:

1. Said team will represent the USCSC and the U.S.A. in the competition.
2. Proposal to send a team to a FISU event must be submitted, in writing, to the USCSC Executive Director at least 60-days prior to the FISU competition.
   a. Such proposal must be submitted by the Chairman of the USCSC Games Committee or the President/Chairman of the National Governing Body;
   b. All proposals must be approved by the USCSC Board of Directors.
3. Proposals may be originated by any member of the USCSC Games Committee, any USCSC Active, Affiliate or Associate Member, or any National Governing Body.
4. Team/Coach Criteria is as follows:
   a. Team must be composed of "World Class" Athletes;

b. Team members must meet USCSC standards as regards eligibility, performance, conduct, etc.
c. Team must have qualified coaches.
d. Team must meet all criteria of USCSC Games Committee and National Governing Body.

5. Funds must be available for team's competitions expenses.
6. The USCSC Executive Director will work with the appropriate USCSC Games Committee and National Governing Body during all phases of the competition, including but not limited to:
   a. Team members and coaches selection.
   b. Team preparation.
   c. Finances.

Glen Davies, Executive Director of USCSC welcomes suggestions and support for any and all events sponsored by this organization.
